

I value a diversity of opinion in the media, so I am requesting that you leave in place the laws limiting ownership and cross-ownership of media outlets. A single company should not be allowed to own television channels, newspapers, and radio stations in my city or any city, and a single company should not be allowed to dominate the national market either. Such domination by one company would restrict the diversity of opinion that is essential to a healthy democracy.